

HIS NAME

Yahweh chose to place His name in scripture nearly 7,000 times. And each one of those 7,000 times man has replaced it with a title (such as "The LORD") in 99% of all translations.

Exodus 3:15 And Elohim said further to Mosheh, “Thus you are to say to the children of Yisra’el, ‘יהוה [YHWH] Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Yitsḥaq, and the Elohim of Ya’aqob, has sent me to you. This is My Name forever, and this is My remembrance to all generations.’

YAHUSHUA

Originally, the name of the messiah was pronounced Yahushua.

When the Gentiles tried to transliterate His name into Greek, they came up with “Iesous”.

When “Iesous” was transliterated into Latin, it became “Iesus”.

When the King James version of the bible was published in 1611 CE, “Iesus” was used.

When the letter ‘J’ developed in the English language “Iesous” became “Jesus”.

THE NAMES

- Yahweh considered it important enough to include something about His name in the Ten Commandments.
- He considered it important enough to include a warning that we would not be held "guiltless" if we choose to break it.
- Therefore, in spite of what others may think, let's keep His commandments by restoring what Yahweh placed there originally.
- Let's set aside vain tradition and walk in the original truth of Yahweh... just as He inspired it.

THE NAMES

The following is a summary of the excuses that they have used for their refusing to insert the true name Yahweh.

1. It's used in most English versions
2. We're following an ancient tradition
3. The word "Jehovah" does not accurately present any form of the Name ever used in Hebrew (What about "Yahweh"??)
4. Use of any proper name...is entirely inappropriate
5. It lacks devotional qualities

Amongst all these reasons, is there not something missing here?

YES, it is something that they have gone over painstakingly word for word!
Something called THE WORD OF YAHWEH.

Not once did they quote a scripture to back up their excuses!

THE NAMES

Ruth 2:4 And see, Bo'az had come from Běyth Lehem, and said to the reapers, “יהוה be with you!” And they answered him, “יהוה [Yahweh] bless you!” Footnote: They had no problem calling יהוה [Yahweh] by His Name!

Above we see the name respectively used by non-priests.

Revised English Bible - Introduction to the Old Testament

The divine name (YHWH in Hebrew characters) was probably pronounced 'Yahweh', but the name was regarded as ineffable, too sacred to be pronounced.
